'September', 'October',

After [[World War II]] he was hounded by the HUAC (House Unamerican Activities Committee) and left the United States. He came to [[Switzerland]] where he adapted "Antigone" and then was invited to Berlin by [[East Germany]]. Horrified at the reinstatement of Nazis into the government of the western portion of Germany, Brecht made his home in the east. Although he never in his life was a member of the communist party, he saw the goal of communism as the only reliable antidote to militarist fascism and spoke out against the remilitarisation of the west and the division of Germany.
